Step outside!

*A visit to the proposed Garden Village site, reported overleaf –
image © Katherine Doughty*

The fastest and easiest way to improve your mood is to spend a few minutes with nature, recent research has confirmed. Spending just five minutes in a green environment can bring fresh perspectives and renew your energy – in fact, the first five minutes are the most effective. Almost any patch of green will do the trick.

So, consider stepping outside for a few minutes next time you take a break. You might come back a lot happier.

A special place

As shared with Parish Council Clerk Katherine Doughty

On a sunny Wednesday morning at the end of February, I joined a walking tour of the land north of the A40, site of the planned Garden Village.

It was a beautiful day, which really brought home to me the richness of wildlife there. We were surrounded by the song of skylarks and yellowhammers, buzzards flying overhead and a woodpecker hammering away in the distance. Off the beaten track is a small lake, a habitat for ducks and geese, and surrounded by bulrush.

The area is such a fantastic haven for wildlife thanks to the careful stewardship of the farmland using traditional organic techniques. City Farm on the northern edge of the site, is particularly rich in plant life, where instead of artificial fertiliser, nitrogen-fixing plants are cultivated on a 3 to 4 year cycle to provide nutrients for the crops. For me, a priority must be preserving whatever is possible of this wonderful landscape.

Parish councillors' comments are guarded at present in view of the imminent elections: more details on pages 6 and 13 – Ed

Your free newsletter

This issue marks the conclusion of our sixth successful year. The current cost of delivering a 'free' copy of Eynsham News to your home every other month, 6 times a year, is £2.58. Thanks to a small army of volunteers, our only expenses are for layout and printing. We depend entirely on our generous sponsors and advertisers to cover these costs. If you're interested in supporting us over the coming year, please contact Sandy Hellig: 07551 876285, email sandy.hellig@gmail.com

EYNSHAM NEWS NEEDS YOU!

The Eynsham News print run covers every home and business in our parish. At present it is financed solely by businesses in the parish. We know businesses are choosing many marketing and advertising options these days. We too are exploring new funding streams, to keep up with the likelihood of rising print costs plus inevitable increase in housing.

HOW CAN YOU HELP? Please contact Sandy Hellig if you'd like to be a part of this great resource – details opposite. Below, outgoing treasurer Tom Smith explains how Eynsham News has worked for him – our thanks for his support

I took over the treasurer role 3 years ago whilst in the early years of my financial advice business for two reasons: firstly to be able to give back to the local community and secondly to allow me to get to know the local businesses so I understood how I could help them and conversely see if they would be able to help my business grow.

During these years I have made many contacts and feel that my business is now becoming well known within the local business community. However, with a heavy heart I must now move on as the business has got considerably busier and I simply do not have the time, especially as the main period as the treasurer is early April, which clashes with the end of the tax year, a very busy time for me with clients ensuring they are using their ISA & pension allowances for that year.

The lost words

This award-winning book by Robert Macfarlane, with beautiful illustrations by Jackie Morris, is a magical book of poems, intended to be read aloud. It was inspired by the removal of words like acorn, bluebell, conker, kingfisher and otter from the Oxford Junior Dictionary. The natural world is conjured up and comes alive – reconnecting children with nature.

A successful Crowdfunder campaign to provide a copy to every primary and special school in Oxfordshire – and over 30 other areas of the UK – is now expanding to resource packs, themed trails, etc.

Public services

Thanks to Eynsham Parish Council Clerk Katherine Doughty for another report on recent/current work. All council contact details are listed on page 5

ROUNABOUT SPONSORSHIP: The National Association of Local Councils has given us legal support in principle to undertake a scheme on the B4449 roundabouts. This will allow sponsors to have suitable signage, funds from which will enable the roundabouts to be refurbished, planted with shrubs and regularly maintained. Please contact the Clerk if your company/organisation would like to register an interest.

PRECEPT/BUDGET: Details have been signed off for the coming financial year and can be found in the Finance area of our website at bit.ly/2PSIDAs

PAVILION RE-BUILD: The Council is due to meet SWA Architects and stakeholders to consider the revised plans following some initial feedback. The current design includes a first floor which can be divided into two areas and used for events, classes, etc; a balcony overlooking the playing field to the south; and a disability lift. The ground floor will have 4-6 disability compliant changing rooms, referee rooms, a lobby area and lock-up storage units to the rear.

DEVELOPMENTS TO WEST AND NORTH: We continue to represent the community with the ongoing development consultations and meetings. Comments from parish councillors are guarded at present in view of the imminent elections; other voices on page 11 – Ed

ELECTIONS: Parish Council elections will be held on Thursday 2 May. We are a very busy council of 15 members with individual interests or specialisms, who work together to progress the Council's priorities. In view of ongoing projects and the volume of development proposals, a commitment and willingness to work for the community is key. Members attend one or two committees, each meeting 2–4 times a year, in addition to the Full Council meeting, held in the Bartholomew Room at 19:30 on the second Tuesday of the month with effect from 14 May. Please see eynsham-pc.gov.uk

PLAY & ACTIVITY DAY: By popular demand, we are working with Oxfordshire Play Association to hold another event on Friday 26 July. Please contact the Clerk if you would like to attend, to promote what you offer to local families, children and young people and provide a fun activity for families to enjoy. We are also holding a skateboard workshop/demonstration at the Skate Park on the same day courtesy of King Ramps. Put the date in your diary – details to follow!

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING: Please also note this public meeting at 19:30 on 23 April at the Village Hall. Village organisations are to upload their annual report to the website for distribution at the meeting.

GRANTS FOR GROUPS: Does your club, charity or voluntary organisation need financial assistance? The Parish Council allocates £2500 each year for grants to local groups of this sort. Amounts paid are usually between £100 and £400. You can download an application form from our website or contact the Clerk to have one posted or emailed. Deadline to apply for a grant covering financial year 2020–21 is 26 November 2019.

This year, the Council approved grants to Eynsham Good Neighbour Network (£400), Eynsham Baptist Church 'Funky Friday' (£300), Three Churches Holiday Club (£200), Oasis (£275), Oxfordshire Play Association (£500), Eynsham Litter Pickers (£150), Royal British Legion (£150) and West Oxfordshire Citizens Advice Bureau (£250).

Our great outdoors

Sue Osborne – Chair, Fishponds & Footpaths Committees

The final piece on the Wharf Stream Way art trail should have been installed by the time you read this, weather permitting. It is in the form of a carved bench, by artist Will Glanfield, sited on the bank of the Thames close to the weir, between points C and D on the downloadable map at www.tinyurl.com/wswmap

Please do enjoy the trail, which highlights and illustrates much of Eynsham's heritage. 'The beginning of your journey is modest indeed – it starts right at your door' – Anon

The part of Footpath 206/7 which hugs the north bank of the Wharf Stream between Siemens and the footbridge has recently been cleared so that the correct route can now be followed. It was previously very overgrown and the path meandered through the field, from which the stream can't be seen. Do go and walk along the cleared stretch if you can: the views of the pretty waterway are lovely; there is lots of wildlife to be seen; and in doing so you will be helping to keep the path clear.

Following the Fishponds working party in December, when a small section of the dry stone wall along the northern edge was restored, many of you will have noticed that the work has continued apace. A much longer stretch has now been completed, which is fantastic, and I'd like to thank the small band of volunteers who are turning out regularly to do it – it's transforming the area and is certainly very much appreciated by all who enjoy the Fishponds!

The worn-out boardwalk at the eastern edge of the site should be replaced very soon, following the consideration of several quotes by the Parish Council.

Planning update

Dennis Stukenbroeker – Chair, EPC Planning Committee

When the large red lion appeared on the front of the eponymous pub in the Square, it was a Marmite moment for Eynsham residents. And it didn't have planning permission. A retrospective application (18/01307/ADV) by then owners, Heritage Leisure, has been refused by West Oxfordshire District Council.

Planning officer Kelly Murray said, 'The large wall painting, due to its size, bold, stencilled design and bright red colouring, is prominently visible from the street scene and appears as an alien, distracting and visually incongruous feature in its setting, being unsympathetic to the character and historic interest of the host building and failing to preserve or enhance the character and appearance of the surrounding Conservation Area'.

Eynsham Parish Council also objected to the lion on the Grade II listed building but thought it might be OK if it was a bit smaller and they brought back the hanging baskets.

The Red Lion was bought from Greene King, along with hundreds of other pubs, by Hawthorne Leisure, which has since been bought by NewRiver Real Estate Investment Trust, which now owns 650 pubs, as well as shopping centres, around the country.

The Planning Committee meeting in March was like old times. Instead of applications and endless amendments by big builders for hundreds of houses, the Committee just looked at a half dozen applications by real people in the village for changes to their own homes. There were applications for three new dwellings in a garden in Elms Place and for a self-contained annexe and garage in Tanners Lane. Otherwise it was extensions in Hazeldene Close and Witney Road, the extension of a dormer window in Evans Road and the renovation of a kitchen in a 1720 listed building in Acre End Street.

All planning applications can be seen online at westoxon.gov.uk/planning

The County Council continues work on its proposed Park & Ride and bus lane, with the business plan still unpublished. The Parish Council has reiterated its 'concerns at the irreparable damage the proposed development will cause' and 'remain unconvinced that the Park & Ride is in the best location to ensure maximum modal shift from car to bus'. Meanwhile, the Stagecoach route 11 bus serving Eynsham, Freeland, Long Hanborough and North Leigh (formerly subsidised by OCC) is to be withdrawn with effect from 29 April – Ed

GRANTS FOR LOCAL PEOPLE: Eynsham Consolidated Charity can make grants to relieve need, hardship or distress. The Bartholomew Educational Foundation can make grants to students, apprentices, etc. aged under 25. The trustees meet four times a year, in February, May, late August or early September, and November.

If you need help, or know of someone who needs help, or want more information, write to the Charities' Clerk Robin Mitchell at 20 High Street, Eynsham OX29 4HB or email eynshamcharities@gmail.com

Patients' corner

Thanks again to Graham Maynard for his regular report

In this issue, three important messages from the surgery. Firstly, it would be helpful if patients took more notice of their chronic disease reviews, especially for asthma and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD). I know lots of people think they are managing their conditions well, but it's always worth attending a review by a clinician because the professional may be able to highlight things that you aren't aware of.

Next, partly as an efficiency measure but also to speed communication, the GPs are increasingly texting patients with results of tests or requests to make an appointment. Most of us seem happy about this but a few are not. The reasons that the GPs are using texts is because they are quick, so you get the information sooner than if the surgery had to ring and you also can read the message at your leisure; moreover, the surgery saves time as staff don't have to relay messages from the doctor. Obviously, if you would still like to speak to a GP, you can contact the practice and arrange a telephone appointment; but in most cases the text should contain all the information you need.

Lastly, the surgery has reluctantly decided to stop providing an ear irrigation service. Ear irrigation is something that practices have hitherto provided without reimbursement but, in recent years, there has been a significant increase in the workload of their nursing team, for example blood tests, ECGs, NHS health checks, dressings, injections, spirometry (measuring how much air you can breathe out in one forced breath); so they need to create time for the nursing team to do this essential work. Patients who need help with managing ear wax problems can obtain a self-care information leaflet from local pharmacies or online (have a look at nhs.uk/conditions/earwax-build-up). Armed with this, most people will find that they are able to resolve their problem.

Did you know that people who actively commute – walk, cycle or take public transport – have a lower BMI and absorb less pollution than car drivers? asks Parish Cllr Tricia Crowley. You need never wait for the S1 bus if you check live departures on your smartphone. Register the number of your favourite stop and text it to OXONTIME.

CHILD HEALTH CLINICS for 'Bumps, Babes and Bouncers' continue on Fridays 13:30–15:00 at the Village Hall. Outside those times you can contact Health Visitor Claire Larsen at Long Hanborough: call 01993 881887 or email oxfordhealth.eynshamwoodstockhv@nhs.net

Messages left after 16:00 may not be answered until the following day.

A new chapter

Eynsham Community Primary School is busy building stronger links with the community

This term has seen Ginny Bayliss appointed as the substantive Head teacher at Eynsham Primary school. Since arriving last year, Mrs Bayliss has made significant changes which have brought about further improvements in relation to teaching, learning and behaviour.

She has been developing the curriculum to engage and enthuse the children and continues to create exciting opportunities for the children. Examples of this include an author visiting the school during World Book day (see below) and working with the local industry to develop the children's knowledge in Science.

Mrs Bayliss is passionate about working with the community of Eynsham and has been impressed with the support from local community groups. The school are visiting the nursing home, day centre, the pre-school and the library, helping to make the community links stronger and providing depth of learning to the children. Staff members have also been visiting toddler groups in the area to get to know the future Eynsham pupils.

If you are a parent of a pre-school aged child, we would welcome you to visit the school to see the changes that are taking place here. The school is holding a nursery open morning on 25 Thursday April at 09:15 with a Head Teachers welcome. There will be a 'stay and play' session for parents & toddlers every Thursday (during term time) from 9 May – 13 June 09:45-10:45 for all 2-3 year olds: £2.50 including a snack and a drink.

Please contact the school for more details about either of the above on 01865 881294 or email on office.2209@eynsham.oxon.sch.uk where you will receive a warm welcome.

Talking parking

Thanks to Sandy Hellig for the latest update from the Eynsham Retail Group

Eynsham Retail Group has been discussing with Parish and District councillors – and informally with many of our residential neighbours – the possibility of marked parking bays that will be time limited during office hours, Monday to Friday. The response to date has been overwhelmingly positive.

Our primary aim is to ensure reasonable access to our shops for all in Eynsham and the surrounding villages.

We are requesting four sets of double parking bays in total – outside shops on the High Street and Mill Street as well as one marked loading bay.

The procedure for this to go forward involves, amongst other things, an official consultation. Before this happens, we are interested in your thoughts so please pop into our shops to find out why we feel the timed bays are necessary and share your feelings on the matter.

We look forward to talking parking!

An official statement from St Leonard's church

With the existing St Leonard's churchyard having no new burial spaces available there has, for some time, been a considerable strain on space for burials in Eynsham, with no obvious solutions forthcoming. To provide an interim solution, in consultation with the Diocese of Oxford and the Parish Council, we have been exploring the possibility of reusing parts of the churchyard.

We have initially identified a suitable part of the churchyard, the northwest corner, where there have either been no previous burials or where the burials are over 100 years old and are unmarked. In time we will look to free up more space by extending this area. Prior to doing so we will attempt to contact any existing descendants of marked graves. We will then apply to the Diocese for permission to remove the gravestones in this area, which will be respectfully placed at the side of the churchyard as a lasting memorial.

If you have any questions or concerns about our proposal please contact our administrator in the church office on 01865 883325 (Monday-Thursday morning) or email stleonards_stpeters@btconnect.com

'A place to grow'...

West Oxfordshire District Council suggested that it would be helpful to reiterate the role of the community in developing an Area Action Plan for the garden village. Here is their contribution

Thoughts and ideas to help formulate the Oxfordshire Cotswold Garden Village are being drawn from a number of sources and voices.

At the heart of a collaborative design approach is a Community Forum established to enable local community group representatives to openly discuss aspirations and ideas.

Working collectively, everyone can have a role to play in developing homes for all: connecting to and complementing local villages, towns and people. Find out more at Oxfordshire Cotswolds Garden Village website thegardenvillage.org

The Forum has visited the Bicester Graven Hill self-build community featured in the Grand Designs programme and Elmsbrook built with eco-town principles. Other developments (Cambourne and Trumpington Meadows in Cambridge and Letchworth and Welwyn Garden Cities) have also been visited.

Oxford Brookes Urban Design 2nd year students are studying the Garden Village for their master planning module and will be discussing their ideas with the Community Forum. There will also be design workshops in May to look at design options for the Garden Village.

Discussions, ideas, expert reports and workshop results will all contribute to an Area Action Plan Options paper which the public will be consulted on this summer. Consultation responses will inform an Area Action Plan which the public will be consulted on before submission to the Planning Inspectorate.

We look forward to continuing to engage with people and organisations to achieve the best outcomes for existing and new communities associated with the proposed Garden Village.

Oxfordshire 2050 is part of a £215m Housing & Growth Deal agreed by the Oxfordshire Growth Board with the Government, now being formed by all authorities in the county. A 'call for strategic location ideas' is open until Friday 12 April at oxfordshireplan.org

Greater Eynsham

Fr Martin Flatman walked out of last month's Garden Village Community Forum, refusing to be complicit in the process: 'getting us involved felt more like softening us up'. He pointed to the A40, the elephant in the room; the lack of coordination by our county and district planners; and the pretence that this will be separate from Eynsham. A statement from other residents follows

While Eynsham struggles to cope with the impact of 160 houses being built at Thornbury Road, plans for another 3200 are progressing. EPIC and other groups, along with the Parish Council, are working hard to get the best possible outcome for Eynsham – but it is not easy!

We have walked the garden village site and explored its treasures, attended three community forums and three study tours (including recent developments in Bicester and Cambridge and the original garden cities at Letchworth and Welwyn Garden City), attended other meetings and given detailed feedback and constructive suggestions.

However, we really wonder how our views will shape the future as, despite our best efforts, WODC seems to regard the community forum as a talking shop and is unwilling to provide us with written information, records, conclusion or actions – or even a list of attendees. Many of us have expressed concerns about the superficial level of discussion, lack of transparency and need for independent facilitation. WODC says it is not obliged to deliver the forums which are outside the formal consultation process. We need a strong, effective and well informed voice; but Eynsham residents seem to be a minority in this process and numbers are falling as disillusionment grows. We continue to ask for independent facilitation of workshops but despite some positive noises it is still far from clear how this will work.

West Eynsham has slipped below the radar with so much attention on the garden village; but it will affect us even more directly. Meanwhile the developer Berkeley Strategic has appointed a masterplanner and there may be more community planning workshops. This is all a lot for us to deal with and of course we keep saying that the whole of Eynsham should be planned together. WODC recently announced an extra £150k which could be used to ensure that the transformation of Eynsham is managed with vision, independence and transparency to benefit the entire community. We are still waiting to hear how this will be achieved.

CONVERSATIONS WITH READERS: Thanks as ever for your comments and queries – our last issue produced a bumper bundle. Good news for a start: you can happily recycle Eynsham News once you’ve read it (and cut out anything you want to keep). We’ve thought of using recycled paper but the environmental benefits are debatable, as our printer explains below.

‘For all the talk of local recycling, paper manufacture involves giant cargo ships ferrying pulp across the world – then shipping recycled paper back – because we’ve no commercial paper mills left here. It’s an international industry, with more profit to be made from sales to Australia and the Far East than to the UK... so we end up with local shortages and prices continuously rise.’

Now, a hat trick of errors to confess – what should we do without your eagle eyes?

- The giant frieze masterminded by Peggy Garland was for the Queen’s Silver Jubilee celebrations in 1977, not 2007 as stated. Apologies to Don and Sue.
- The photo of the tug on the frozen Thames was taken by Brian McCreadie on 11 January 1982; and the man on the deck was Mick Marshall.
- The Carers’ Group still meets at 11:00–12:00 on the 3rd Wednesday of the month.

BIGGER AND BETTER? Would a large print version of the Eynsham News be helpful to you, or to any of your family and friends? It can easily be produced on a regular basis, if we can find an acceptable format. From discussion with some of our older residents, we’ve registered that one type size may not suit all; that ‘sans-serif’ font may be preferred; and that text may be better left-aligned, instead of spreading across the column.

Print and distribution raise more questions, though community spirit has triumphed in the past! Please contact Joan Stonham if you’re interested – details on page 2 – or check the demonstration issue at eynshamnews.org.uk

What can you do to help with the most serious problem ever to confront mankind? Come along to our AGM and find out! In addition, there will be a talk from Prof John Whitelegg on sustainable transport; and from Councillor Laura Price on a local transport solution. Afterwards, a bring & share supper. If you would like to attend the supper, please bring a dish (savoury or sweet) and possibly a bottle as well. We hope to see you on Wednesday 10 April at the Scout Hall, 48 Back Lane (opposite the car park) at 19:00 sharp! Ros Kent

ADVANCE NOTICE: Station Road will be closed from 27 May to 8 July 2019 inclusive, for 'excavation and water mains connection works'. The alternative route is via Acre End Street – Oxford Road – B4449 and vice versa. You have been warned!

The COMMUNITY INFORMATION NETWORK now comes to Eynsham Day Centre once a month, to give help and support to the clients and others in the village who contact us. Thanks to Eynsham Emporium for hosting our Information Drop-ins for the past year or more. If we have any sessions with colleagues I know where to come, as you do a great cuppa! Stephen Mott

VILLAGE SHOW 2019 is on Saturday 14 September in the Village Hall and Scout HQ – and the Class List is online already! CROQUET has been played in Eynsham since 1996 with many Eynsham residents taking advantage of the two first class courts at the Cricket Club on Cassington Road. Golf croquet is easy to learn and can be enjoyed by all abilities, it does not take long to enjoy the friendly club sessions. And unlike cricket, rain (or snow) does not stop play! Find us every Tuesday and Saturday from 14:00–16:00 and Thursday from 10:00–12:00. Our Open Day is on Saturday 13 April from 14:00–16:00, come and give it a try. Roger Booth

You may have tried your hand at temporary court at the Eynsham Carnival last year. 2018 was a very successful year for the Club. Both Associations and Golf Croquet players won through to National finals. We ran a very successful and enjoyable internal league for Golf players whilst the highlight of the year was undoubtedly the inaugural competition for the Brian Hitchin trophy. We hosted several taster evenings for local organisations including Eynsham Rotary, when a healthy competitive spirit was enjoyed on a sunny evening followed by refreshment in the Newlands Inn. If your club is looking for a different challenge, contact us via the website eynshamcroquetclub.org.uk

EYNESHAM CRICKET CLUB Nets continue 27 March and 3, 10 and 17 April at Bartholomew Sports Hall, from 20:00–21.30. All players old, current and new welcome! We also have a sign up night at the club on Friday 26 April 17:30 to 20:00 for juniors, families and seniors; do come.

ECC now has a thriving ladies' section too. If any ladies in the village fancy some exercise and the opportunity to learn how to play the game then come along, you will be made most welcome. No previous cricketing knowledge is required, you're sure to have fun with a very friendly crowd. In winter they practise on Friday from 18:00-19:00 at Bartholomew Sports Hall. From the end of April outdoor practice will take place on Friday from 18:00 at the cricket ground at School Piece Field on Cassington Road. After the cricket you can enjoy a drink and make the most of our regular Friday night BBQ. Contact Cindy Creasey: 07717 436833

JOHN STUART RUSSELL: *The village marked the untimely death of yet another 'character' last month. EYNSHAM ARTS GROUP has grown to 50 members but I think has kept the friendly, inclusive atmosphere in our 5 years with Eric White as chair. His relaxed and genteel way of introducing guests and speakers removes any pressure or nervousness; and a relaxed audience learns and participates, as proven every month. His own status as an established and well-liked artist has helped increase the visits to our exhibitions too. He has certainly earned his retirement and time to paint in France. We are pleased that he is continuing his membership and I shall try to follow his example as Chair. We welcome all to join us on the last Wednesday of the month at 19:45 in the Music Room – visitors now £3. Jane Hale
