

The bare fence : public consultation done, permissions granted, Covid complied with...

Generous funding from Eynsham's Rotary Club. A 24-volunteer NRN relay and 120 meters of hedge to be planted

'Whips' 'Heeled in' in David Haynes Veg Patch: Hawthorn, Dogwood, Wild Rose, Spindle and Hazel

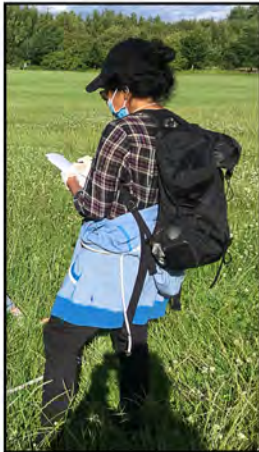

Ian, Lucy, Laurie, Theo Wright/Dickinson make the first cut

Martin Mulligan digs deep

Rebekah Key: "We really enjoyed taking part"

Srilakshmi Sharma whose camera froze (here she is at last summer's botanical survey workshop)

Robin Saunders - Eynsham Tree planter extraordinaire and tutor, planted 35m of hedge on his own stretch as well as helping others. THANKYOU Robin!

Gill Parry, Robin's partner and unstoppable force in the massive 35 meter dig

Roland D'Costa and Peter Larbaestier stoming along the south face

Ros Kent getting into her stride on the Saturday stretch

Carl and Silvia Rylett with Alex wielding the spade...

Catherine and Anna Atherstone: "we had a lovely sunny time planting today"

Chris Baker who inspired the Beavers to plant their hedgerow seeds that will eventually be added in...

Linda Wisheart nearing the end with Catriona Bass. Ross Macken, who co-ordinated the Parish Council's involvement, took the final stretch with Julie...

David Haynes: co-ordinator, buyer, heeler in, deviser of 'cunning planting relay' and tutor. Ably helped by Tim Geatches who did most of David's planting! THANK YOU BOTH!